

Carlos Segura, M.S.

High School Teaching Assistant

Carlos Segura holds a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial engineering and a Master of Science degree in international negotiations from the Universidad Latina de Costa Rica.

Mr. Segura has extensive international experience in strategy, international business, management, negotiation, training/teaching, customer service, continuous improvement, corporate operations, intellectual property, and innovation. He has worked with companies in Japan, Costa Rica, and the United States. He served as President of the Association of Hispanic Professionals in Japan (from 2017 to May 2020).

Mr. Segura is the author of several publications in scientific journals in the United States of America, Colombia, and Costa Rica.

