

Karissa Pacione

5th Grade

Karissa Pacione was born in Logansport, Indiana. She later moved to Edmond, Oklahoma. She received a Bachelor of Science in elementary education at Oklahoma State University and has a state license with endorsements in middle school math and science.

Ms. Pacione has taught many grades from elementary to high school in science and math.

Ms. Pacione lives in Edmond with her husband and two daughters. She has a passion for engineering and architecture and enjoys cooking and baking, spending time with family and friends, and watching mystery shows.

