

Christopher Collier, M.P.A.

Government

Christopher Collier was born in Houston, Texas. He grew up primarily in Houston, where he was very involved in competitive speech and debate, tennis, track and field, the drama club, student council, and a youth development program, Young Men for Positive Action.

Mr. Collier graduated from Lamar University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Corporate Communication and Political Science, and he received his Master of Public Administration from Texas Southern University.

He has nearly five years of experience working in the higher education system, serving as a professor of government for Houston Community College and Tyler Junior College.

Mr. Collier is passionate about supporting urban education and dedicates his service work to assisting and facilitating student success.

In his spare time, Mr. Collier's interests and hobbies include traveling, playing sports, listening to music, watching movies, and spending quality time with family.

