

Olivia Ullery, M.A.

11th Grade English

Olivia Ullery was born and raised in Toledo, Ohio. Ms. Ullery attended the University of Dayton and studied English and women's and gender studies for her undergraduate degree. During her senior year, she wrote a creative honors thesis about heroism. She was a rower as a teen and at the college level.

Ms. Ullery received her Master of Arts degree in English language and rhetoric from the University of Toledo where she taught Composition I and Composition II.

While studying and teaching, Ms. Ullery was the head coach of the rowing team at her high school alma mater, Notre Dame Academy. In addition to rowing, she taught at The Language Company for many years supporting students in their English language studies.

After receiving her master's degree, Ms. Ullery taught English to high school students in Qingdao, China for two years. She prepared students for school in the United States by helping them develop their listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in English.

Ms. Ullery taught English classes online through The Language Company. She then accepted a position as Director of The Language Company-Edmond on the campus of the University of Central Oklahoma at the beginning of 2022. She enjoyed supporting the international students there for a year.

Ms. Ullery believes in challenging students to analyze written texts and to think critically about the world around them.

