Elementary Headmaster

Lisa Day has been in education for more than 20 years. Most of that time was spent as a fine arts teacher in music, art, and drama.

Ms. Day graduated from the University of Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in music and a secondary emphasis in letters (languages, history, literature, and philosophy). In her administrative role she has served as both an Assistant Head of School in the private school sector and as an Assistant Principal in the public school sector.

Ms. Day holds a master's degree in educational leadership from Southeastern Oklahoma State University and is currently pursuing a doctorate degree in educational leadership from Southern Nazarene University. She is a professional cellist.

Ms. Day is happily married to a fellow school administrator and they have two adult children. Her son is a working actor, director and he works in theater software sales. Her daughter is an amazing visual artist and is currently attending barber school. Ms. Day has 3 fur babies that she adores, 2 Great Danes and a Pit Bull mix.

When she isn't working or studying, Ms. Day loves to shop, play music, travel, and read.
