

Alexandra Thomason, M.Ed.

2nd Grade

Alexandra Thomason received a Bachelor of Arts degree in secondary education from Hope College in Holland, Michigan. She is a Certified Reading Specialist and holds a Master of Education degree from DePaul University in Chicago.

Ms. Thomason taught in Chicago, Illinois for several years where she developed a Response to Intervention (RTI) program for her high school students to improve their literacy skills. Ms. Thomason is passionate about literacy and promoting a love of reading in her classroom.

Outside of school, Ms. Thomason can be found going on walks with her husband and two pugs, Winston and Eloise. She loves spending time with her family on hikes, kayaking at the lake or fly fishing.

