

Casey Rainbolt, M.Ed.

Headmaster

Casey Rainbolt began her career in education at ASTEC Charter Schools. She served as both the high school psychology/sociology teacher and the senior capstone teacher and was the sponsor for both STUCO and the senior class. Upon completing her master's degree in education, she transitioned to the school counseling role within ASTEC.

Ms. Rainbolt spent the last few years completing her school psychometry certification as well as school psychology coursework. Currently, she is working to achieve her administrative certification.

Ms. Rainbolt enjoys being active in the community through utilizing her counseling skills. She has experience serving on trauma and crisis response teams as well as teaching social and emotional learning. Her passion for advocating for children led her back to ASTEC, where she is excited to help scholars "achieve their highest potential."

When she is not working, Ms. Rainbolt enjoys spending time with her family and traveling.
